Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WHOZIT)

Yes sir, you've got to hand it to the L. & N. R. Co. for when an emergency arises they don't "play around." They get going, as they have demonstrated with work now going on their hurricane-wrecked bridges... they already have train service between Mobile and Gulfport, and before very many more days pass that service should be extended to here... work on the highway bridge seems to be going just the opposite, why? ... President Truman's relief program has allotted $100,000.00 to be spent on the Gulf Coast section, as the government engineers see fit, and since this section between Bay St. Louis and Clermont Harbor has suffered the most the majority of the appropriation should be spent here... we want to take a little space to congratulate Dr. C. M. Shipp, director of the Hancock County Health Department, and his competent staff for the splendid work they have been doing since the hurricane to ward off possible spread of disease and epidemics among the already stricken populace... during the period immediately following the disaster, they were on the job twenty-four hours a day for four days, with hardly any rest at all... our hats are off to "Doc" for a job well done... for two weeks beginning October 17th, Mississippi's governor will be State Senator Oscar Wolfe, president pro-tem of the senate, during that time Governor Fielding Wright will be attending the Governor's Conference at Asheville, N. C. ... no doubt many fans will travel to New Orleans Saturday to see Felix "Doc" Blanchard do his stuff at Tulane Stadium as a member of an Army team which will meet the Corpus Christi Naval Station in a benefit game for the relief of hurricane sufferers in the New Orleans area and along the Gulf Coast... with the resumption of classes at St. Stanislaus this week, all schools in the county are now back in operation on a full-time basis, they will have to make up a lot of lost time... Stanislaus now has two new buses and Bay High one to transfer its athletic teams to out-of-town engagements... the Centennial Celebration of Our Lady of the Gulf Church which was to have been held next week has been postponed to a later date, possibly some time in May, 1948... the contractors expect to complete the new Baptist Church, being built on Main Street, some time within the next month... The Town of Waveland has made an announcement that its stock law, regarding stray stock, "on the loose" will again be in effect beginning Monday, October 13th... for those who do not know, the Red Cross Relief headquarters are on Carroll Avenue in the former Episcopal Rectory... 4,500 copies of last week's edition of the "Echo" showing scenes photographed after the recent storm, were printed and all were sold before Tuesday afternoon... we received many compliments on the above mentioned issue... don't forget that on November 4th you will have to go to the polls and elect a successor to the late Senator Theodore G. Bilbo.

RED CROSS NOTES

The Hancock County Red Cross Chapter wishes to express gratitude and appreciation to everyone for the wonderful cooperation and assistance rendered during the emergency caused by the hurricane of September 19th. Each person, from the young children to adults of all ages, worked diligently, with no thought of risk or fatigue, in helping less fortunate and administering to the sick and injured and wherever needed.

With such team work, our community achieved astonishing results, so to each one who helped in any way, sincere appreciation and gratitude are extended.

A meeting of Community Service to Camps and Hospitals will be held at the Red Cross Chapter House in Hattiesburg, Miss., on October 15th at 10 a. m. This important meeting is for the purpose of making plans for the Christmas holidays at the Veterans Hospital. This meeting had been scheduled for September 24th but was necessarily postponed because of the hurricane.

The location of the Chapter Workers Institute scheduled for October 21st through 24th at the White House, Biloxi, Miss., has been changed to Edwards Hotel, Jackson, Miss., because of the recent hurricane. The dates of the Institute, October 21st through 24th, will be the same. Anyone interested in attending, kindly contact Mrs. Weston, at the local Red Cross office in the Courthouse.

$100,000 Allotted To Gulf Coast From President's Fund

Money To Be Used Under Direction Chief Of Engineers; United States Engineers Opened Local Office At City Hall on Thursday Morning—75 to 80 Laborers And Mechanics Needed.

Following the request of the Mayor and Commission Council of the City of Bay St. Louis, and other public bodies, Governor Fielding L. Wright, requested President Truman to release a battalion of Army Engineers in this area for the purpose of clearing storm debris and he further requested that the United States Engineers make a survey of the storm damage to the roads and to the seawall. The Governor's request was formally discussed at the President's cabinet meeting and on Tuesday the local officials were advised by Senator James Eastland and Congressman William M. Colmer that President Truman had allotted $100,000 from his emergency fund as hurricane relief to the Gulf Coast, and that this money would be used under the direction of the chief of engineers, and that the decision had finally been reached to use money instead of troops.

On Wednesday Mr. Dupree Hays of United States Engineers office at Mobile, Ala., called on Mayor Blaize and the members of the Commission Council of the City of Bay St. Louis, stating that advices had been received of the allocation of funds, and that they wished to establish temporary offices at the City Hall on Thursday morning October 9th, in order that applications for employment might be received, it being necessary for them to employ from 75 to 80 men to carry on the work planned.

Mr. Edwin C. Mardorf, Project Engineer of the United States Engineers will be in charge of the work. Mr. Hays was asked as to how and in what localities the amount of money allocated would be spent and he stated that it would be used where the work was most needed, and he further stated that all units in Hancock County would be covered by the local office in Bay St. Louis.

It is first contemplated that all debris will be removed and Mayor Blaize has asked that all persons having lumber etc., on the beach area which has not as yet been removed, to start at once removing the same, as the engineers once the work of clearing the front begins will pile up this debris and burn it, unless it is removed by those claiming same.

RED CROSS DISASTER RELIEF

With a total of 421 families asking for assistance in recovering from the hurricane of September 19th the Red Cross Disaster Relief Unit, Hancock County moved into high gear this week, according to Mr. Roger Boh, Chairman of the Hancock County Chapter. Every family who has filed an application can be assured that a 45 individual situation will be given close study by one of the professional disaster workers and will be given assistance according to the established disaster relief policies of the American Red Cross. Although applications are still being received, Mr. Boh stated that if the work of the disaster relief is to proceed as speedily as possible it will soon be necessary to refuse new applications after a certain date.

Two new disaster workers have joined the staff operating out of 131 Carroll Avenue and covering Hancock County. They are Miss Betty Jane Landman of the Detroit Michigan Chapter and Miss Sylvia Gentry of the Houston, Texas Chapter of the Red Cross.

The advisory committee appointed by Mr. Boh held its first meeting last week and was carefully briefed in its function by Charles B. Cooper, Director. This committee is composed of prominent citizens of Hancock County so selected as to represent each community. They will meet regularly with the personnel of the Disaster Relief Unit and attempt to guide and assist them in best meeting the needs of the community. In outlining to the committee some of the things to be kept in mind, Mr. Cooper pointed out that the only yardstick for measuring the success of the relief program was the effectiveness and thoroughness of meeting the needs of individual families. Great harm can be done from being over generous as well as from being too sparing. It is difficult for a group from outside the community to work accurately in this direction without the interpretation provided by a local committee. He reminded the committee that all the information pertaining to beneficiaries was to be held in strictest confidence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Roos Appear On "We The People" Program

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Roos of New Orleans and Clermont Harbor, were on the air on Tuesday night on the "We the People" program and gave their experience of September 18 and 19 during the hurricane.

Mr. Roos said that he and his wife and three children together with their two servants were in their home at Clermont Harbor when they felt the hurricane growing stronger. They remained in the house, he said because their four year old son Leo was ill. With the increasing velocity of the wind and the rapid rise of the tide Mrs. Roos stood on four mattresses on a table and some of the neighbor who had come in to help were holding the other children on the mantel piece.

The water rose to a height of 5 feet in the house and they were fighting the snakes with sticks, he said.

Mr. Roos said, "we prayed aloud and then we told each other goodbye but God heard our prayers and some one saw a small cat boat."

There Mrs. Roos came on the air and said "I want to tell what my husband did." She said that he pulled the boat to the house and put each of them, there were eight of them, in the boat. Then he pushed it and when that tired him he went to the front of the boat and pulled it. When I saw him go under I screamed but he came up. Three times he went down but emerged from the water. We finally found a store standing and went in it. "My husband is the bravest man in the world," she said.

But she said we are alive and Leo is in the hospital recovering from pneumonia and so we are not complaining.

MEETING OF ST. JOSEPH ACADEMY PARENTS' CLUB HELD

The regular monthly meeting of the St. J. A. Parents Club was held in the school "den" on Tuesday afternoon, October 7th, with twenty members, Sister Raphael and Sister Cornelius present. The meeting was opened with prayer by Sr. Raphael, with Mrs. O. Delph, president presiding.

It was announced that there was an increase of 23 members. The new members present were introduced. Various plans were discussed to be used during the year to raise money for the repair fund, which has been deemed necessary to help in repairing to damages caused by the recent hurricane. Committees will work on the plans during the month, with final decisions made at the November meeting.

The project for the month will be to increase the membership list still further. Volunteers were asked to fill in the vacancies in the list of room mothers, who will contact the ladies monthly to advise them of the meeting.

The attendance prize was merited by Sister Pauline's second grade. The door prize for the day was divided between the treasury and Mrs. Roger Boh.

After the meeting, the hostesses, Mrs. L. L. Kergosien and Mrs. Ogden Kergosien served delicious refreshment. The hostesses for November will be Mrs. Leo Ford and Mrs. Luke Saucier.

A recent Texas paper carried the announcement of the death of Rev. Albert Lane Ingram, brother of S. J. Ingram of this city, who died in a Houston Hospital.

Mr. Ingram, a native of Mississippi went to Houston when told by his physician that he did not have more than a year to live.

He did supply pastoral work in the First Baptist Church and taught a Bible class in Houston. He also taught a class in the Union Theological Seminary for Negroes from 1945 until his death.

Mr. Ingram was a Mason and a member of the Arabia Temple shrine. His funeral was held in Houston on Friday, October 3, the Rev. Dr. W. Boyd Hunt, pastor of the First Baptist church officiating. Interment was in Forest Park cemetery.

Besides Mr. Ingram he leaves his wife, a sister, Mrs. M. McMillan and a brother V. C. Ingram both of Houston and a number of nieces and nephews.

STAYED ON DUTY DURING STORM

MRS. VICTORIA BECKER

MISS MARIE STRONG

"The Message Must Go Through—" the telephone tradition of devotion to duty was never better demonstrated than during the recent hurricane that devastated the Gulf Coast area. The service performed by the two Bay St. Louis operators pictured above was an outstanding example of this tradition. Mrs. Victoria Becker, left, and Miss Marie Strong, Southern Bell operators were on duty at the switchboard on the second floor when the hurricane struck the Mississippi Gulf Coast city on the morning of September 19. "Between 7 and 9 a. m. many of the subscribers seemed frantic and were very busy trying to get their calls through," said Mrs. Becker. As the storm grew worse, the girls noticed that the sea had covered the railroad bridge and the telephone poles that crossed the bay. Water flooded the streets below and giant waves demolished two nearby buildings before their eyes. Windows in the telephone office crashed in as the hurricane's intensity grew. Still Mrs. Becker and Miss Strong stuck to their jobs and continued to put the call through until the storm finally interrupted all service. "Afterwards," said Miss Strong, "we went into the back room and prayed!"

THE HUMMING BIRD ON BROADWAY

The L. & N. Railroad's crack streamliner, The Humming Bird, is the train featured during the month of October in Anheuser-Busch's giant spectacular sign at Times Square, Forty-Third & Broadway, in the heart of New York City.

The 600-ton sign—called a "natu-rama"—is 100 feet long, 75 feet high, and depicts a streamlined train racing across a scenic background, disappearing into a tunnel and subsequently reappearing. The scene goes through all light-and-shadow variations of a normal day in a brief time, employing 2,500 feet of fluorescent tubing and 7,500 electric lights in the process.

The huge outdoor advertisement—which cost $2,500,000 and was erected over a three-year period—has been in operation for about a year. Each month it features a different train of one of the nation's top railroads.

During October the sign's streamliner—which is one-third the size of the real thing—will bear the colors and markings of The Humming Bird. It is estimated that over one million people will thus see the replica of the L. & N. train every day of this month.

EPISCOPAL GUILD MET ON TUESDAY

The Christ Church Episcopal Guild met on Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. M. W. Briggs on North Beach.

The subject of study for the month of September, October and November is the book "God is Not Dead" by Dr. Bernard Bell. Mrs. Rene de Motuzin had the program for October.

Mrs. Harold Weston, promotion chairman, reported on the Diocesan Executive Board Meeting she attended at Jackson.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour was held. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. L. Horton.

Bay High Cubs Receive Uniforms

The junior football team of Bay High received their brand new uniforms and helmets Wednesday afternoon. The youngsters, under Coach Broadus are rapidly prepping up and expect to play four or five games this season.

The hurricane delayed delivery for two weeks of the uniforms, but everything is now ready.

The Tigers, after losing to a strong Lumberton team, met Poplarville Friday night in another visit to foreign soil.

Small Fire

The fire department was called out on Monday to the residence of Mrs. R. N. Blaize, because a small building in the rear of the residence caught on fire. The blaze was soon extinguished without any mishap to anyone. Mrs. Blaize was alone in the house at the time of the fire.

MEETING OF KINGS DAUGHTERS

The Bay St. Louis circle of Kings Daughters and Sons met on Monday afternoon at the hospital with a good attendance.

The circle expressed deep appreciation of all the splendid volunteer work done during the trying times of the hurricane and after. It would be out of reason to attempt to mention names or to single out one person or one phase of work but united effort brought about the results.

A special mention was made of the generous donations from George Pitcher and the amount left the hospital by the late Mrs. Mary Montgomery.

The circle announces that this is the month for the payment of dues and the conditions of streets and driveways make it impossible to put on a house to house canvass. It is hoped that all those interested in joining the Kings Daughters (and this should include everyone) will bring or mail their membership dues, $1.35 to Mrs. Roger Boh or Mrs. E. P. Kirkpatrick.

If the public has not recognized the value of the hospital to town and county before the recent storm they should now.

Join the Kings Daughters.

Why We Are Publishing Pictures of Storm Ruins Again

Last week we printed 4500 copies of the Echo, feeling that this amount would be far more than the demand, and that we would take care of the people who would be late in securing the issue that carried the pictures of the hurricane ruins. We were mistaken in our estimate and we find a great number of people still calling for this issue. It was impossible for us to keep the forms of this issue, and to print anymore copies of however, we have decided that we would again publish a number of the pictures that appeared in last week's Echo in order that the people who failed to get the last issue, might still be able to send this weeks to others away from home, so they might be able to get a comprehensive view of the storm ruins from the pictures that we are reprinting.

Bay Garment Company Reopened On Monday Morning, October 6th.

The Bay Garment Company began operations on Monday, October 6th, after a layoff of several months. Mr. James Rutter, the plant Superintendent, states that nearly all of his old workers have returned, and that it is the hope of the company in time to enlarge its facilities.

At the present time the work at the plant is being devoted entirely to the making of boys plaid sport shirts.

Wylie Smith Dies at Mobile

Wylie Smith, 46 years old, died at Mobile on Monday, of a cerebral hemorrhage. His funeral was held in Mobile on Tuesday with religious services at the funeral home and interment was in Magnolia cemetery.

He is survived by his wife and six children. He was a brother of Mrs. Horace Farr and a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith.

Addresses Students At St. Joseph Academy

Rev. Father Ferdinand Evans of Cincinnati, National Officer of Catholic Student Mission Crusade, addressed the high school students of St. Joseph Academy on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Father Evans is visiting all schools in Mississippi and is urging all schools to organize a C. S. M. C. in their school.

Father Evans was an Army chaplain at Camp Shelby during the war.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of Hancock County Chamber of Commerce held on Monday morning in the office of the Chamber of Commerce the following officers were elected to serve for the 1947-1948 fiscal year, Howard W. LeTissier, President; Lamar Otis vice president and Ted Robin, treasurer. Prior to the election of the officers, ballots had been mailed to the members for the election of four directors for a two year term and the results of the balloting showed the election of Lamar Otis, Howard LeTissier, Dan M. Russell, Jr., and Octave Delph. These four together with Harry L. Sumrall, Arthur Scalfide, T. T. Robin, Homer Gregory and Joseph Kern, who have another year of their term of office to serve will constitute the Board of Directors for the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

All of the new officers pledged their full support and cooperation. Plans are going forward at this time for the membership drive and teams are being organized for the purpose of carrying on this drive, with the hope of bringing it to a successful conclusion at the earliest possible time.

It is to be hoped that many who have dropped their membership in the Chamber of Commerce will realize the necessity of this organization and that they will come forward and join.

Of all times that a real live civic organization is needed is now. There is much to be done by a good Chamber of Commerce, and if it is alive and wide awake, with a good live membership, much can be accomplished.

So Mr. Business Man, when you are approached on the subject step to the front and join the Chamber of Commerce.

SELFISHNESS THE CAUSE

Most of the troubles that confront the world and many of those that worry individuals can be explained in a word of eleven letters—selfishness.

To elucidate this thought, let us consider a single individual who is entirely interested in what he can get. He takes what he wants to satisfy his ambitions, appetites and desires. He takes no thought of other people and their rights. He is unconcerned with the fate of other human beings. Life to him is completely successful when he completely satisfies his own aims. What do you think of such a man? What kind of world would we have if every man were of this type?

Take for example a family group. Here we have the fundamental organization of society. Let us assume that each member of the family—father, mother and all of the children—are concerned solely with their selfish aims. Each is determined to get what is coming to him or her without any thought of the other members of the group. How long do you think such a family group would continue and what kind of life would they lead as long as the family continued to operate?

The observations in regard to individuals and family groups apply equally to the other organizations and institutions of human society. It is true in reference to towns and cities, counties and states and nations, as well. It is obvious, in theory when we reflect upon the world and its people.

As an individual, you control the life of only one person. You can direct yourself and your relations with other people. You can make one useful member of human society if you are willing to give up some of the selfishness that makes human cooperation impossible. Whether you decide or intend to do so is a personal problem for you to determine. The answer that you make measures the extent of your contribution to civilization.

MOGA TO ASSIST IN SECURING CONSERVATION ACT

Mississippi's only oil and gas conservation law was enacted in 1932—15 years ago and seven years before the first oil strike in Yazoo county's Tinsley field started the magic shout of "oil" echoing throughout the state. Although it has been amended twice since that time, it has had no changes since 1936—three years before any oil was actually discovered. The patched up 1932 law is structurally the same as when it was first enacted to meet emergencies created by discovery a few months earlier of the Jackson gas field.

Despite the strides made by science and the oil and gas industry during the past decade and a half, in prospecting, drilling and producing oil and gas, Mississippi has worried along with the outmoded 1932 law.

Pointing out that the oil and gas producing industry is now expending annually in excess of $50,000,000 in Mississippi, officers of the Mississippi-Alabama Division of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association have pledged support to the 1948 legislature in the passage of a modern conservation act which will protect these newly-discovered resources.

Representing 97 per cent of all oil and gas men operating in the state—independent and major producers, lease brokers, prospectors and drillers—the Mid-Continent division officials at a recent meeting decided that it will assemble and have available for the new legislators the facts in the case and urge that they write a law which will give adequate protection to all concerned—the general public, the landowners and governmental subdivisions, as well as the oil and gas industry.

"According to geologists and petroleum engineers, 'proven reserves' of oil and gas in Mississippi are more than 30,000,000 barrels of oil and 2 to 3 trillion cubic feet of natural gas; all Mississippians, whether land owners, drillers, producers, leaseholders, or just private citizens are interested in the same kind of conservation act—one that will make possible recovery of the greatest percentage of these now proven reserves and the additional reserves that we believe within reason do exist but which will have to be proven by later drilling," said E. D. Kenna, Vice-President of the state's Mid-Continent division.

Mr. Kenna, who served as director of the State Highway Commission from 1932 until he resigned in 1945 to accept his present position and under whose regime the present excellent highway system was developed, declared that all the facilities of his office and of the Mid-Continent associations in other oil-producing states will be made available to Legislators for the drafting of a fair and equitable oil and gas conservation act in 1948.

STATE FAIR TO BE HELD AT JACKSON OCTOBER 6TH THROUGH 11TH

Mr. J. M. Dean, secretary of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Exposition Commission and manager of the 1947 State Fair to be held the week of October 6th through the 11th at the State Fairgrounds in Jackson, announced today that a number of remunerative awards would be presented at the senior dairy cattle contests, scheduled for Wednesday, October 8, beginning at 2:00 p. m.

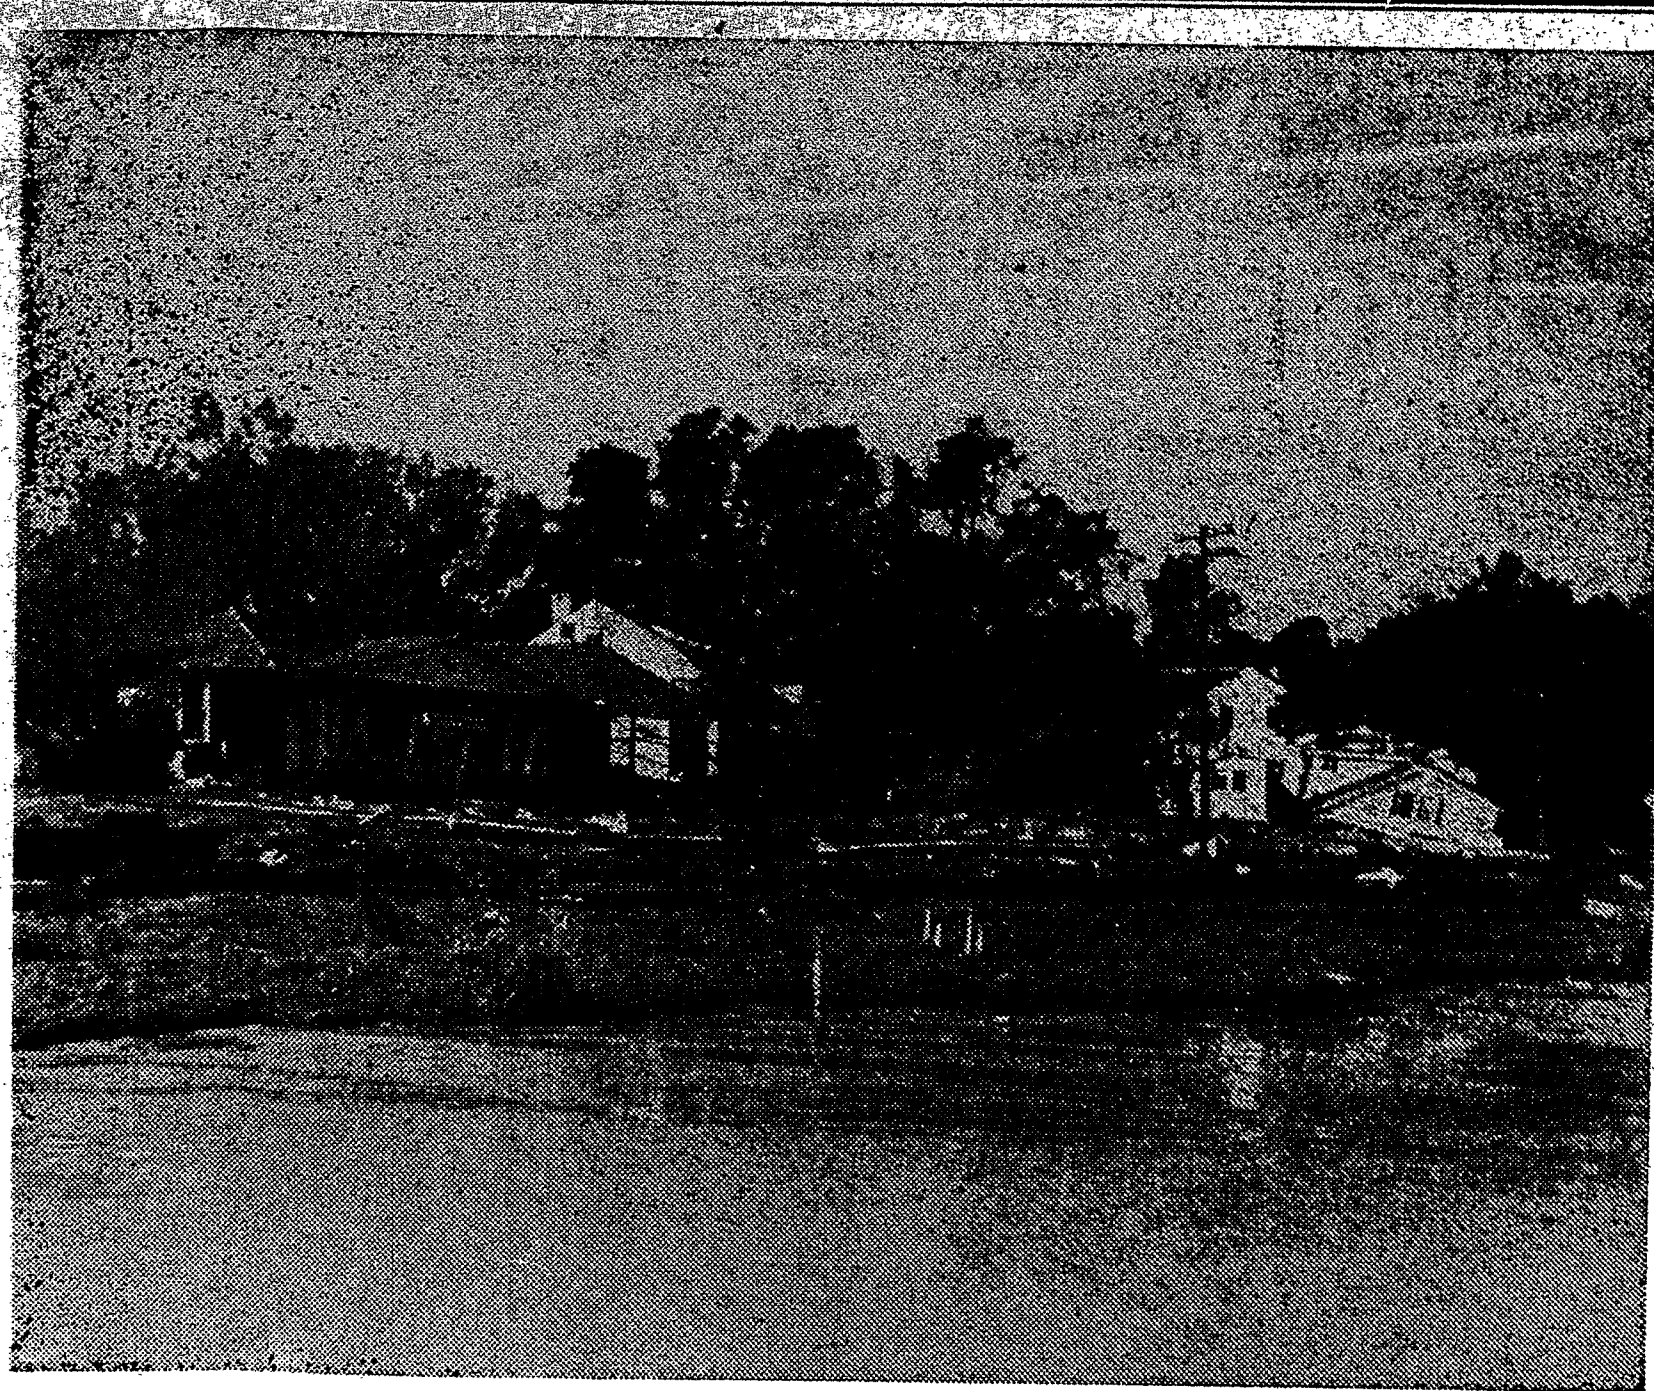

"Everything indicates that prospects are very good for the best senior dairy cattle competition ever held in the State," Mr. Dean remarked as he announced that between 75 and 100 adult or breeder entries are expected in the senior cattle division at the State Fair this year.

Mr. L. A. Higgins, extension dairying leader at State College, has been appointed superintendent in the senior dairy cattle department. Sam A. Catlett of Alabama is judge. They will also officiate at the junior cattle dairy cattle show beginning at 9 a. m. the same day.

Mr. Dean stated that entries will be limited to Mississippi-owned animals of any of the five recognized dairy breeds and must be of such merit to rate a score of 80 percent or more in order to compete for cash awards.

All animals will be judged on a group basis in order of merit in the blue ribbon group (85 percent or higher rating) and in the red ribbon group (80 to 85 percent rating). Prizes will be awarded to bulls, heifers and cows. In each ribbon group, 1st, 2nd and 3rd awards will be made. All exhibitors interested in entering their animals in these contests are requested to make application to the state fair secretary (Mr. Dean) on or before October 1st.

A PROMISE KEPT

Eight years ago when the Mississippi Committee, U. S. Brewers Foundation, was organized, W. W. Pierce, director of this group, promised "to help Mississippi law-enforcement officers to 'clean up or close up' those scattered retail beer outlets which permit illegal practices or anti-social abuses to hide behind the respectability of a legal beer permit."

with the sale of beer where this beverage of moderation is legally sold. The brewing industry sees to it that retailers who fail to observe the law or to recognize their responsibility to the community and the people they serve are promptly weeded out.

From where I sit, it looks like the brewing industry has kept its promise and has rendered a real public service by assuring us that beer can be enjoyed in a wholesome atmosphere.

Bay St. Louis Visited By Many Sightseers

Bay St. Louis was the mecca of visitors on Sunday. Great crowds came from New Orleans and other towns to see the wreckage left by the hurricane. It was hard for visitors to realize what had happened as they gazed on the calm peaceful water shimmering in the sunshine that this same body of water had risen to heights unknown carrying in its wake destruction.

October 6th Through 12th To Be Observed As National Employ The Physically Handicapped Week

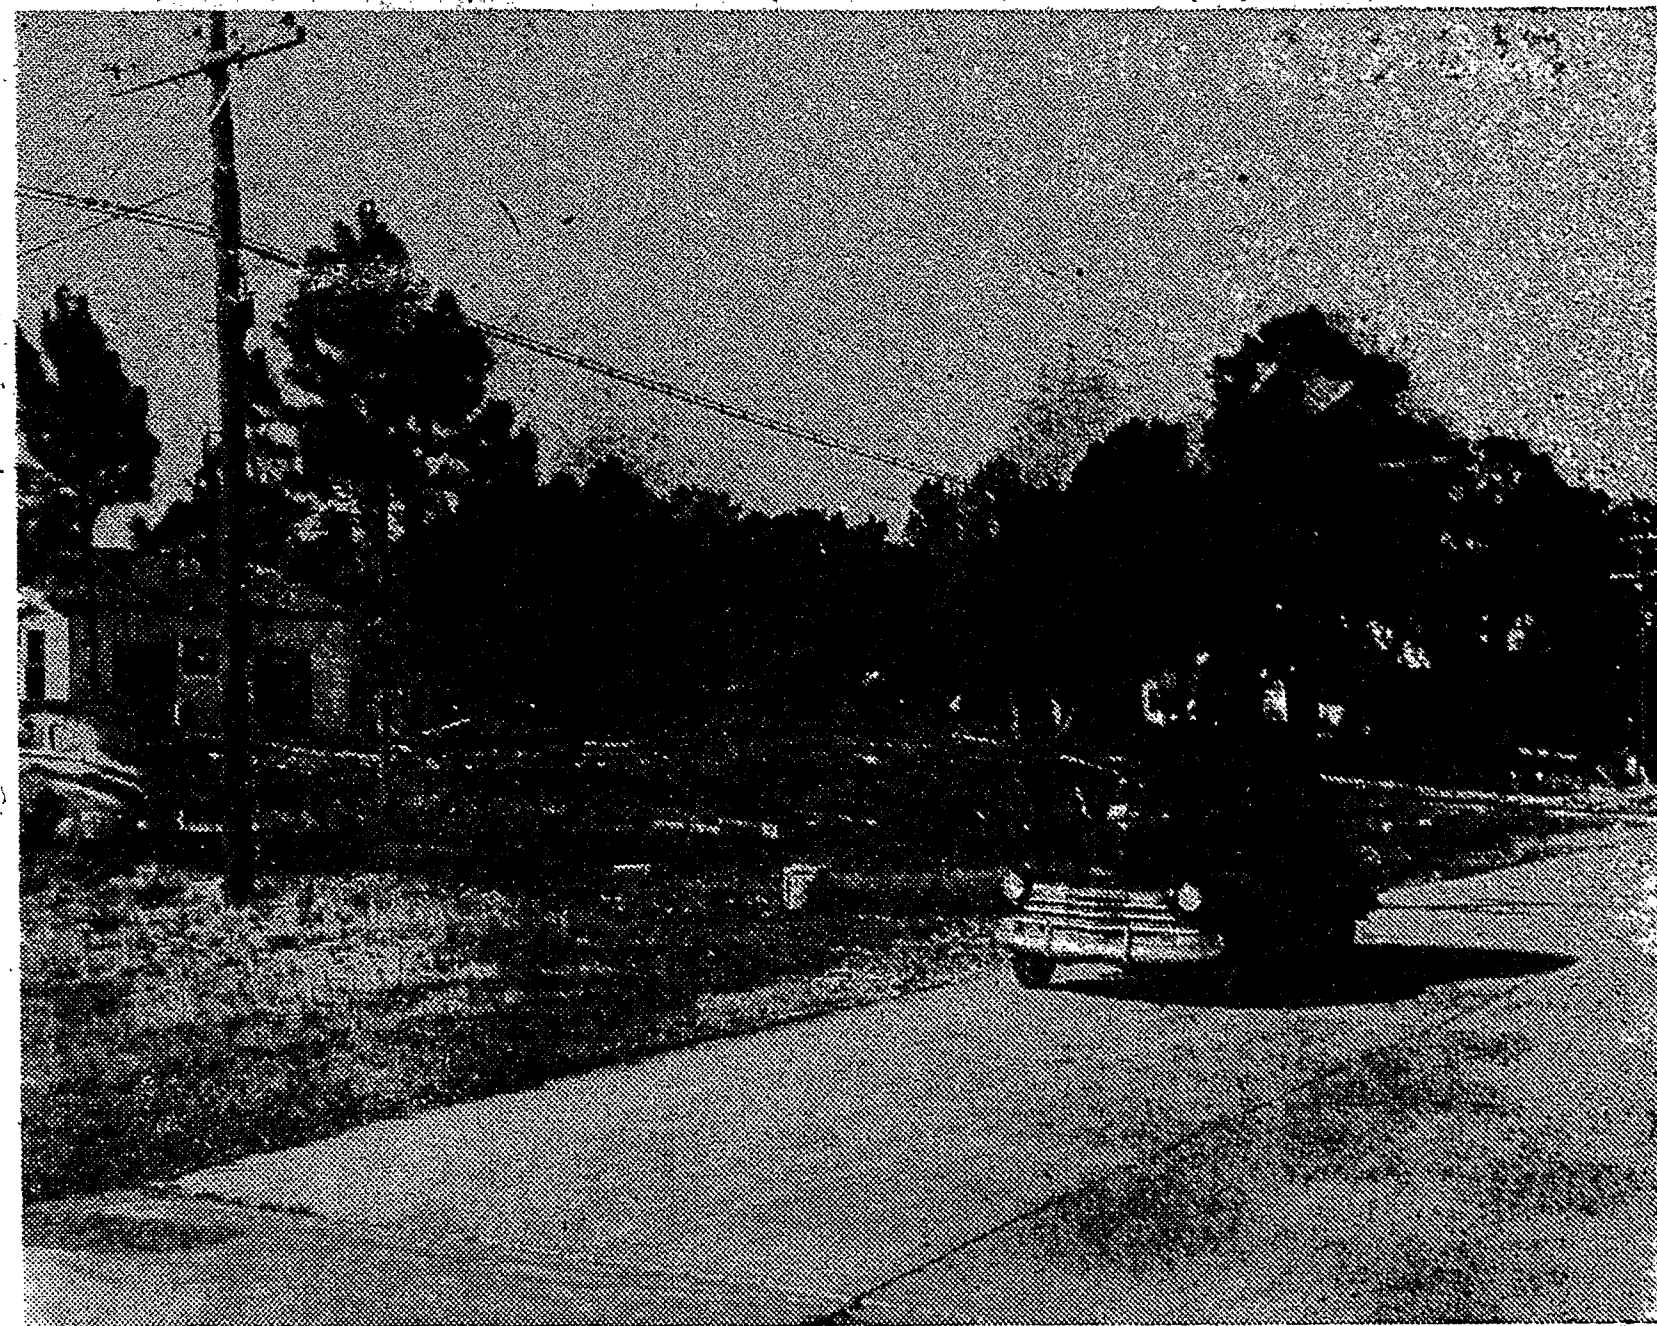

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 27—(Special)—The week of October 6-12 will be observed in Mississippi and over the nation as National Employ The Physically Handicapped Week, according to J. M. Tubb, State Superintendent of Public Education. Mr. Tubb states that the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, one of the divisions of the State Department of Education, under the direction of E. B. Whitten, is particularly concerned with the observance of this week in Mississippi. This division will make intensive efforts to acquaint employers with the advantages of employing handicapped people. The records show that when handicapped people are properly placed that they have lower absentee rates, less turnover, better safety records and as good or better production records than their normal fellow workers. Mr. Tubb further states that during 1947, Vocational rehabilitation was completed for 816 persons in Mississippi.

In calling this matter to the attention of the people of Mississippi, State Superintendent Tubb feels that proper observance should be given to this week of October 6-12 and that wherever possible those people who are physically handicapped should be given consideration for employment or should be assisted in securing vocational rehabilitation.

NATURE ON THE LOOSE

Devastation caused by the hurricane in Bay St. Louis, photographed from the second-floor telephone office across the street. In this telephone office, operators stuck to their posts while windows in the building crashed in, water flooded the streets and giant waves demolished two buildings before their eyes.

The Recent Hurricane Demonstrates Again Southern Bell's Ever-Readiness to Serve You ... Come Storm or Fire, Hail or High Water

With the first warning of the approaching hurricane along the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, all Southern Bell personnel in the Southeastern states was alerted for action. Orders for equipment were rushed to the Western Electric Company. Emergency crews from adjoining states poured into the threatened area by truck, plane and train. Every effort was concentrated on getting skilled men and materials there ahead of the hurricane.

When the full fury of the storm struck, operators stuck to their posts hour after hour... maintaining communication throughout most of the storm-lashed section... helping to save lives and avert injuries, to ease anxious hearts and minds and to bring a feeling of calm and comfort to those waiting out the wind. Typical of this devotion to duty were the two lone operators in a telephone office in Bay St.

Louis, who stayed at their switchboard until the last lines went out—then prayed.

As soon as the storm abated, emergency crews went to work repairing a damage to telephone facilities that ran into hundreds of thousands of dollars and totaled more than 106,000 breaks in service. Skilled repairmen worked around the clock—wading through miles of swamps and marshes—battling wind, water—even snakes. It was a tremendous job. Yet within a few days after the wind blew itself out, more than 90% of the telephone service in areas affected by the hurricane was back to normal.

Fortunately, hurricanes don't happen every day. But it's good to know that whenever and whatever the emergency, you can count on telephone folks to deliver that extra measure of power in a pinch. It's this tradition of service that gives a value to your telephone that cannot be measured by the price you pay.

ORTTE THEATRE WED.-THURSDAY 'BLONDIES HOLIDAY'

With Penny Singleton and Arthur Lake

The twentieth in the popular "Blondie" Series, "Blondie's Holiday," will open Wednesday and Thursday at the Ortte Theatre. Penny Singleton playing Blondie, Arthur Lake as Dagwood and Larry Simms as Alexander, are the top featured players. Marjorie Kent, Jerome Cowan and Grant Mitchell have other featured roles.

Constance Lees' original screenplay, based upon the comic strip "Blondie" created by Chic Young, is reprinted to be a highly diverting story packed with Dagwood's hijinks. Dagwood is fired from the job, takes to betting on the ponies and is snatched from a difficult situation by a whirlwind finish. Lake, as Dagwood, is reported to be up to his usual standard of performance, which is high, indeed. Penny Singleton is said to be giving her usual competent performance, as do the rest of the "Blondie" regulars.

The film includes a novelty flash-back sequence, reported to be outstanding, as is the hilarious business whereby Sid Tomack, as a tout, instructs Dagwood in picking winners. Abby Berlin directed.
